Gallup Poll Says Nixon Most Admired

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP) — A Gallup Poll report says President Nixon was the most admired man in the nation in 1969.

Following the President in the returns reported Wednesday were Evangelist Billy Graham, Vice President Spiro T. Agnew, Lyndon Johnson, Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, Hubert Humphrey, Harry Truman, George C. Wallace, Pope Paul VI and Sen. Edmund Muskie.

FPost 1-9-70